It's all over but the voting.

Have you rallied yet? Then rally at the polls to-morrow.

If you were a betting man, we would give you a straight tip on Prouty; but since you're not, better keep your money in your pocket.

If the big Middlebury fair is a criterion by which to estimate the interest of the people, the state fair at White River Junction should be a mammoth affair.

The unusual heat in the vicinity of the Montpelier armory Saturday night is said to have been due to John Senter's sizzling words. Still, they say John won't get elected representative to-morrow.

The "usual" Democratic vote in Vermont is predicted by Chairman Harris of the state committee. The Democratic vote is such a fluctuating quantity these days that it is hard to say what the "usual" vote would be.

The Proctor bugaboo has again excluded other things from the Rutland Herald's eyes, and it has felt called upon to read Governor Proctor out of the running for the United States Senate. The School begins Sep. 2. Everything here to help your boy make a good showing at the head of his class.

contemporary is following the usual way of forcing an election onto a man, for frequent reiterations of the fact that he may be a candidate is rather sure to stir up the people toward really making him a candidate, provided he is a decent possibility. The Herald would gain more by keeping still about the senatorship.

A WORD TO BARRE VOTERS.

With the largest registration it ever had, a full party vote in Barre this year would mean a larger representation in the state and county conventions. This is one reason why every voter in Barre should go to the polls to-morrow. This applies to both Republicans and Democrats.

VERMONT ALIVE TO ELECTION.

By dint of spellbinding, newspaper advertising and circular letter communication, the so-called apathy which always precedes a political campaign in Vermont has been effectually dissipated again, as usual; and Vermont seems to be alive to the issues of the election which comes to-morrow. Vermonters are notoriously slow to become worked up to a pitch of enthusiasm; in fact, they rarely do get as wildly enthusiastic over politics as our Western people do. They do not think out loud, but come to their conclusions in a quiet manner, having weighed the balances pretty thoroughly. So the present campaign has been but a repetition of former campaigns, characterized by apparent indifference, little noise and less hullabaloo, but with the people thinking all the time. And now, with their thinking accelerated by the information set at their disposal by the leaders of the political parties, they are prepared to vote tomorrow as an intelligent electorate, not driven to the polls in droves at the snap of the bosses' whips, but going as individual citizens.

DELAYED LABOR DISPUTES.

The granite plants of Vinal Haven, Me., closed down pending the drawing up of a new working agreement on March 1, at the same time the business in Barre was suspended. The labor difficulty in Barre was settled within two months, while in Vinal Haven it has run along for six months, until now, when the plants will reopen. We thus have a chance to note the advantage of a prompt and vigorous attempt at a settlement. Barre, although losing considerably by the two months' shutdown, is incomparably better off than her sister granite town in Maine, for the business there has been seriously crippled by the delay, much personal hardship was experienced and the town lost a large part of its population, temporarily at least, when the men had to go to other granite centers to secure work. While we know nothing of the peculiar local conditions which might work against a speedy settlement of the disputes, it does seem that a delay of six months was utterly foolish on both sides and unwarranted. The bad results in Vinal Haven constitute an object lesson for Barre or any other granite town; and it applies also to any kind of industry.

WITHDRAWS SUIT.

That of Graves vs. Town of Waitsfield Has Been Settled.

An entry was made Saturday in the files of the clerk of Washington county court, discontinuing the case of E. H. Deavitt, administrator of the estate of Jonathan G. Graves, vs. the town of Waitsfield. This case was docketed for trial at the September term, but has been settled and discontinued. It is a companion case to that of Harriet Graves, wife of J. G. Graves, against the same town in which the plaintiff was awarded a verdict of $900 and costs for injuries received on a defective bridge on one of the main highways of that town.

The hearing in the case of the Delmont Granite company of Dalmont, Pa., to recover $1,000 from Scott & Townsend of Barre for an alleged breach of contract was partially heard Saturday before E. H. Deavitt as referee. George W. Wing appeared for the plaintiff and R. A. Hoar of Barre for the defendant. The alleged failure of the defendant company to deliver certain granite monuments at a time specified in the contract is the cause of action. The hearing was not completed Saturday.

WHITNEY AWARDED FIRST.

Middlebury Free-for-all Was Settled Off The Track.

Middlebury, Aug. 31.—It was decided to call off the free-for-all and the 2:35 pace which were unfinished Friday, the last day of the Addison county fair, and which it was announced would be finished at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning. This action was taken by agreement among the drivers and owners and by wish of the fair officials who were to attend the funeral of Secretary Fred L. Hamilton at West Salisbury Saturday afternoon. Some of the trotters, also, had to be shipped Saturday to the Sherbrooke fair where they are entered in the races this week.

The free-for-all settled on points and the $1,000 purse divided among the three winners as follows: Jennie W., George E. Whitney's mare, first; Estatic, owned by Mr. Long of Barton, second; Hallock M., third. In the 2:35 pace, first, second and third money was divided between Rouses Point Boy, Scribnaught and Joe Hal equally.

New York, Aug. 31.—At track and field athletic games held at Celtic Park L. L. yesterday under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, several of the American athletes who took part in the Olympic games in London last month contested. ## AUTO DIDN'T STOP.

When Man and Woman in a Team Gave a Signal.

Essex Junction, Aug. 31.—Mrs. C. Brunell of Jericho, while driving with Mr. Brunelle to Winooski, met with an accident near the Daniel Bishop place in the edge of Jericho Saturday. They were driving a colt and hearing an automobile coming back of them, Mr. Brunell motioned for the car to stop but the signal was not heeded. Mr. and Mrs. Brunell jumped and the car struck Mrs. Brunell and she claims one wheel passed over her. She received several bruises and her clothes were badly torn. It is understood that a Mr. Galusha was the owner of the machine and that he offered them $5 to settle which they would not accept. Mr. and Mrs. Brunell came to this village and stopped at the home of Mrs. Brunell's sister, Mrs. Peter Fisher, a short time and then continued on to Winooski.
